Psychological drama/romance

This film is about losing touch with reality, getting lost in your own obsession and realising that suicide is not the only way out.

Isabella, who struggles with mental illness is still fixated on the breakup with Michael after 10 years.

The story is set across the 10 years between 2020-2030 following the characters' emotional journey through flashbacks that show their best and worst as a couple and every twist of faith that led to their meeting, break up, and eventually the kidnapping and suicide.

When she meets an anonymous person who gives her the address of a criminal organization lead by Boris Bradwick which organizes suicide, she chooses to die with Michael as she sees their breakup as the turning point in her life to misery
